HONORING JIM TATE, 2010 HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS TRACK AND FIELD COACH OF THE YEAR

HON. JO BONNER

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 22, 2010

Mr. BONNER. Madam Speaker, I rise to congratulate my friend and, coincidentally, my next door neighbor, Coach Jim Tate, whose tremendous talents as a high school track and field coach in Mobile, Alabama have once again earned him national recognition.

On June 28, Coach Tate was named 2010 National High School Coach of the Year for Girls Track and Field for the outstanding record he has amassed while coaching at Mobile's St. Paul's School.

Perhaps more than any other man to coach the sport, Jim Tate has now garnered not one but two national coaching awards, the first being in 1999 as the Girls Cross Country Coach of the Year by the National Federation of State High School Associations.

Without a doubt, Jim Tate is a legend in Mobile and throughout the State of Alabama. He has been involved with the St. Paul's track and field program for the past 32 years, guiding his teams to a total of 56 titles—17 in girls cross country, 17 in girls track and field, 13 in boys track and field, and nine in boys cross country.

Coach Tate's girls' teams have won five straight Alabama High School Athletic Association Class 5A state titles, and his teams set a national high school record from 1982 through 1998 by winning 16 straight state titles.

Madam Speaker, as you might imagine, Coach Tate has been awarded countless honors for his exemplary coaching ability within the community including induction into the 2008 Mobile Sports Hall of Fame, as well as Coach of the Year honors by the Mobile Press Register more times than one can count. Recently, St. Paul's decided to honor Coach Tate by naming their new field house that is under construction in his honor.

On behalf of the people of South Alabama and especially on behalf of the St. Paul's School family, I extend my heartfelt congratulations to a man who has touched thousands of young lives and who, at all times, has been an exemplary role model as both an athlete and a human being, Coach Jim Tate.

I know Jim's family is exceedingly proud of their father and husband for his wonderful example and his tireless dedication to turning our young people into winners, not just on the athletic field, but in the game of life.

RECOGNIZING 65TH ANNIVERSARY OF END OF WORLD WAR II

SPEECH OF

HON. GINNY BROWN-WAITE

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 20, 2010

Ms. GINNY BROWN-WAITE of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 65th anniversary of the end of World War II.

Following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, thousands of young Americans flooded their local recruiting offices to enlist in the Armed Services. In total, over 16 million served in uniform to defend their families, their homes, and our freedoms.

Those serving on the front lines were not the only Americans making sacrifices during America's 4 years in World War II. From Victory Gardens to sugar and gasoline rations, World War II united all Americans. The cooperation and patriotism shown during those times illustrate the best of the American spirit. It is no wonder that these Americans are so often referred to as "the Greatest Generation."

Today, approximately 20,000 World War II veterans live in Florida's Fifth Congressional District. I regularly meet with these veterans. Almost always, what I hear from them is their concerns about where our Nation is going. They fear that we have abandoned the goals and ideals that they fought for, and that 405,000 members of the Armed Forces died for, during World War II.

I would like to thank my colleague from Missouri, Mr. SKELTON, for introducing this resolution to recognize the service and sacrifices of all of the brave men and women who fought against some of the greatest evil the world has ever known. I hope that as we honor these veterans with this resolution, we will also honor them with our acts—returning to the beliefs in democracy, liberty, and freedom from tyranny that made our great Nation what it is today.

With that I ask my colleagues to support this resolution.

HONORING SERGEANT DONALD EDGERTON FOR HIS SERVICE IN IRAQ AND AFGHANISTAN

HON. HEATH SHULER

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 22, 2010

Mr. SHULER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor SGT Donald "Rocky" Edgerton of Murphy, North Carolina, for his valiant service in the United States Army. After September 11th, Sergeant Edgerton's profound sense of duty for his country moved him to join the Army.

He spent his first tour of duty in Iraq, and after serving his country for over a year, he came back with an even deeper feeling of obligation. He was then chosen to enroll in sniper school, where he earned the reputation of "top gun" due to his incredible accuracy with a rifle. When he was called for another tour of duty in Afghanistan, Sergeant Edgerton fearlessly welcomed the challenge even though he had to leave behind his beloved wife and young daughter.
